GDPR (General Data Protection Regulation) Privacy Notice

The new General Data Protection Regulation (known as GDPR) comes into effect on 25th May 2018.

Who processes your information?

Gloucester Nursery School is the data controller of the personal information you provide to us. This means the school determines the purposes for which, and the manner in which, any personal data relating to children and their families is to be processed. Julia Mann, the Headteacher and Liz Ralph, the Bursar act as representatives for the school with regard to its data controller responsibilities.

In some cases, your data will be outsourced to a third party processor; however, this will only be done with your consent, unless the law requires the school to share your data. Where the school outsources data to a third party processor, the same data protection standards that Gloucester Nursery School upholds are imposed on the processor.

Ruth Hawker is the school's Data Protection Officer. Her role is to oversee and monitor the school's data protection procedures, and to ensure they are compliant with the GDPR. The Data Protection Officer can be contacted via the Plumsun website – www.plumsun.com or e-mail: info@plumsun.com

Why do we collect and use your information?

Gloucester Nursery School holds the legal right to collect and use personal data relating to children and their families, and we may also receive information regarding them from their previous setting/school, LA and/or the DfE. We collect and use personal data in order to meet legal requirements and legitimate interests set out in the GDPR and UK law, including those in relation to the following:

- Article 6 and Article 9 of the GDPR
- Education Act 1996
- Regulation 5 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations

2013 In accordance with the above, the personal data of pupils and their families is collected and used for the following reasons:

- To support children's learning
- To monitor and report on children's progress
- To provide appropriate pastoral care
- To assess the quality of our service
- To comply with the law regarding data sharing
- To safeguard pupils .

Which data is collected?

The categories of children information that the school collects, holds and shares include the following:

- Personal information – e.g. names, children's numbers and addresses
- Characteristics – e.g. ethnicity, language, nationality, country of birth and free and eligibility
- Attendance information – e.g. number of absences and absence reasons
- Assessment information – e.g. Early Years Foundation Stage
- Relevant medical information
- Information relating to SEND
- Behavioural information – e.g. number of temporary exclusions

Whilst the majority of the personal data you provide to the school is mandatory, some is provided on a voluntary basis. When collecting data, the school will inform you whether you are required to provide this data or if your consent is needed. Where consent is required, the school will provide you with specific and explicit information with regards to the reasons the data is being collected and how the data will be used.

How long is your data stored for?

Personal data relating to pupils at Gloucester Nursery School and their families is stored in line with the school's GDPR Data Protection Policy.

In accordance with the GDPR, the school does not store personal data indefinitely; data is only stored for as long as is necessary to complete the task for which it was originally collected.

Will my information be shared?

The school is required to share children's data with the DfE on a statutory basis.

The National Pupil Database (NPD) is managed by the DfE and contains information about children in schools in England. Gloucester Nursery School is required by law to provide information about our children to the DfE as part of statutory data collections, such as the school census; some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The DfE may share information about our children from the NDP with third parties who promote the education or wellbeing of children in England by:

- Conducting research or analysis.
- Producing statistics.
- Providing information, advice or guidance.

The DfE has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of any data shared from the NDP is maintained.

Gloucester Nursery School will not share your personal information with any third parties without your consent, unless the law allows us to do so. The school routinely shares pupils' information with:

- Childrens' destinations upon leaving the school
- The LA
- The NHS
- The DfE

What are your rights?

Parents and children have the following rights in relation to the processing of their personal data.

You have the right to:

- Be informed about how Gloucester Nursery School uses your personal data
- Request access to the personal data that Gloucester Nursery School holds
- Request that your personal data is amended if it is inaccurate or incomplete
- Request that your personal data is erased where there is no compelling reason for its continued processing.
- Request that the processing of your data is restricted
- Object to your personal data being processed.

Where the processing of your data is based on your consent, you have the right to withdraw this consent at any time.

If you have a concern about the way Gloucester Nursery School and/or the DfE is collecting or using your personal data, you can raise a concern with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO). The ICO can be contacted on 0303 123 1113, Monday-Friday 9am-5pm.

Where can you find out more information?

If you would like to find out more information about how we and/or the DfE collect, use and store your personal data, please visit our website (www.gloucesternursery.co.uk) or download our GDPR Data Protection Policy.
