

Gloucester Nursery (G3) Visit the Post Office

At the beginning of December, the children wrapped up warm and with their letter to Father Christmas in hand, took a stroll to the local shop and Post Office. To the amazement of all, who should be there but the man himself and his kind elf helper, Viv! After many questions, present requests, pledges of good behaviour and some Christmas singing, the children all merrily returned to the school.

